Dec-14   TECHNOLOGY

LifeSmarts Learn it. Live it.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
30	1 A wall made of non-combustible material that helps prevent the spread of fire in a building is called a:	2 How often should you check for updates to your anti-virus software?	3 What organization collects complaints on various cybercrimes?	4 A con artist who wants to gain your personal information through social networks. What is this called?	5 If you believe your computer is infected with spyware, which federal agency would like to know?	6
7	8 What is the purpose of a search engine?	9 A single request from a Web browser to view a web page is typically called:	10 Bandwidth is usually measured as:	11 If you notice a barrage of pop-ups, your browser takes you to random sites, your computer has been infected with:	12 In order to cut back on junk mail and telemarketing calls you receive:	13
14	15 You mark a specific site on the Internet for easy access later. This process is called a:	16 The CPU, RAM and Cache are all plugged into the:	17 This device connects two or more networks:	18 A hardware device connected to a computer by a cable is known as a:	19 Software that has a license allowing the use/redistribution of copies is called:	20
21	22 The period of time after the business day during which cell phone carriers often charge less for airtime is known as:	23 Which federal agency was the first to use the popular social media site Tumblr?	24 A video journal uploaded to the internet is called a:	25 What symbol precedes a word or phrase to denote that that word or phrase is a "hashtag"?	26 Where are you most likely to find the blogosphere?	27
28	29 Disk drives and display screens are examples of what type of computer technology?	30 Fake anti-virus software, click fraud, and drive-by downloads are examples of:	31 Software that is available for use at no monetary cost is called:			