

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
				1 The most common drug ingredient in America, this is in over 600 OTC and prescription medicines	2 You have a cold and a headache. Taking two different OTC medications with the same active ingredient could cause what health problem?	3 Antibiotics are used to kill what types of pathogen?
4 Under which heading of the Drug Facts Label will you find out how to properly store the medicine?	5 Airbags have been required in cars sold in the US since this decade:	6 Graduated Driver Licensing laws establish ____ stages, identified by the type of license, provisions, and restrictions.	7 Sign up to receive alerts from this federal agency in case of child safety seat recalls:	8 For safety, a bicycle should have reflectors of what color?	9 Bicycle helmets sold in the US must meet the safety standards of which federal agency?	10 Describe one characteristic of a neighborhood with TOD, transit-oriented development:
11 Why are electric cars considered more dangerous to pedestrians, particularly those with visual impairments?	12 The first step to treating a first-degree burn is:	13 If the circuit breakers in your home are frequently tripping, what should you do?	14 Before canning was invented, this item was critical to food preservation:	15 Safety experts at Underwriters Laboratories recommend that residents of multi-level houses install smoke alarms where?	16 Name a common symptom of carbon monoxide poisoning:	17 Of flour, water, and baking soda, which is the best material to extinguish a kitchen fire?
18 Boiling, chlorination, and distillation are all methods used to make water:	19 During this period consumers may change their health care plans and prescription drug coverage for the upcoming year:	20 Which federal law prohibits health insurance companies from denying coverage to new customers based upon pre-existing conditions?	21 In general, as insurance deductibles increase, what happens to premiums?	22 This savings account set up through an employer helps consumers pay copayments, deductibles, and other costs not covered by their health plan:	23 Part D of the Medicare program provides coverage for ____, which was left out of the original Medicare program.	24 As of 2014, the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs allows veterans waiting for primary health care to seek medical treatment where?
25 When you go to the doctor for a physical you are asked to pay $20. This fee is called the:	26 Name one of the four segments of the population most at risk for foodborne illness?	27 Name one of the top five food categories linked to food poisoning outbreaks:	28 Caution should be used when handling which types of pets, since they normally carry some salmonella bacteria in their intestinal tracts?	29 When cooking you should use two cutting boards: one for meat, and one for produce. Why?	30 You suspect that your home's central air system may be contaminated with mold. Why should you not run the air conditioner?	