

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
31 Often called the national library of the U.S., this building has millions of printed books and more than 1,000 digitized books available for public use:					1 This federal agency requires you to disclose on your website if you receive money or goods as an affiliate:	2 What is one safety tip to remember when using social media?
3 How would you subscribe to an RSS feed?	4 What is one benefit of video chatting with a therapist?	5 This federal act requires phone companies to provide free communication help for deaf, hard of hearing, or persons with speech disorders:	6 What is one type of assistive technology that helps people with disabilities?	7 What federal agency requires that television closed captioning be accurate, complete, and simultaneous?	8 Calcium absorbs x-rays the most, making bones look this color on x-rays:	9 What federal law protects patient medical records and treatment plans from being accessed without permission?
10 Using an AED and performing _____ can dramatically increase a person's chance of survival if they are in sudden cardiac arrest.	11 This networking device uses its own IP address to direct Internet traffic:	12 In May 2017, this attack largely affected Windows-based systems in over 150 countries, disabling files for various companies and services worldwide.	13 To prevent pop-ups from appearing, use one of these two web browser features:	14 Why is it important to keep anti-virus software updated?	15 An oversupply of voltage from the power company describes what problem?	16 The illegal act of downloading media you did not purchase is called:
17 The QWERTY keyboard is based on which alphabet?	18 A user can ____ RAM data, a process that erases previously stored information.	19 Federal law bans the FCC from _____ material that is protected under the 1st Amendment.	20 Name one way to make a mobile payment.	21 If the search filter is not specific, you may get _____ results.	22 How can you clear cookies?	23 Worms are standalone software. What does this mean?
24 A person who posts video blogs to social media sites like YouTube is known as a:	25 Since 2000, all TVs sold in the U.S. are required to have this feature that may be used to block content deemed inappropriate:	26 Where are temporary Internet files stored?	27 You should _____ your files in case your computer is infected with a virus or malware.	28 What type of warranty comes with pirated software?	29 You wrote a great musical and need a copyright to prevent your idea from being stolen. What federal office regulates and enforces copyrights?	30 Firewall settings can be managed through your computer's _____ features.