

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1 The Department of Education	2 Nothing; it is free	3 Commission	4 Room, board, fees, (parking, activities, etc.), equipment, travel	5 Merit-based scholarship	6 Pell Grant
7 Work study	8 The bank can legally take it; it may go into foreclosure	9 Get a lower interest rate; lower mortgage payments; use money for household or living expenses	10 Credit score	11 Types of loans; age of loans or accounts; opened or closed accounts; payment history; bankruptcy or foreclosures	12 Both parties; both spouses	13 Tenant
14 The landlord; the management company for your lease or apartment	15 Microfinance; microloans; microcredit	16 Interest	17 Once; annually; once from each of three credit reporting agencies	18 Race; gender; color; national origin; religion; age; marital status	19 Nominal interest rate	20 The Fed
21 In the bottom left-hand corner	22 Internal Revenue Service (IRS)	23 Discount brokers	24 Coins	25 Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP)	26 Credit counseling	27 $250,000
28 Account number; routing number	29 Overdraft fee	30 Safe deposit box; safety deposit box	31 Discretionary income is disposable income, after all necessary payments are subtracted (housing, food, transportation)			