

Save the Date: LifeSmarts National Championship headed to Washington, DC, in April 2020!

Join the excitement of the nation's premier teen consumer literacy competition

Seeking Volunteers!

The 2020 National LifeSmarts Championship is headed to Washington, DC, and we are seeking volunteers to serve as competition officials on Sunday, April 26 and Monday, April 27, 2020. Ideal volunteers are professional experts in one or more LifeSmarts subject area (personal finance, consumer rights, technology, the environment, and health and safety).

Dates: Event runs April 25-28, 2020

Volunteers needed: Sunday, April 26 (8:45 am – 5:00 pm)
Monday, April 27 (7:30 am – 12:30 pm)

Location: Hyatt Regency Crystal City, 2799 Richmond Hwy
Arlington, VA 22202

Participants: The nation's best and brightest high school students travel to nationals to represent their states and compete for the national title. Adult volunteers help ensure smooth competition and an exciting event.

Background: LifeSmarts is an educational program and scholarship opportunity hosted by the National Consumers League to develop the consumer and marketplace skills of teens in a meaningful and fun way. High school students begin online, and top-scoring teams advance to the state level. State champion teams compete in a variety of formats for the annual championship title.

Volunteers: Volunteers serve as Question Masters who interact with students and ask questions in live competition, and as Judges who work as a panel to determine whether answers provided by students are correct.

Sign Up: Contact Outreach Coordinator Cheryl Varnadoe at cherylv@nclnet.org

Other Ways to Support LifeSmarts

Fund: Underwrite post-secondary scholarships to honor students' high achievement.

Provide: Donate 325 "swag" items to fill goody bags distributed to all participants.

Sponsor: Help students by sponsoring a meal, activity, or portions of the competition itself.
