

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1 What makes infographics so effective?	2 Which agency of the United States has been involved in establishing rules regarding net neutrality?	3 In 2018 for the first time, print and TV advertising were outspent by what type of advertising?	4 What word should you look for in an email if you would like to opt-out?	5 If you have not opted in to receive an email, but get it anyway, it is called:	6 Social media has created a new career. People who are paid or given free products to promote a company are called:	7 What percentage of American adults use at least one social media website?
8 What does RSS stand for?	9 What word is used to describe making, distributing, or using bootleg products?	10 When bullying occurs electronically it is called:	11 If someone repeatedly attacks others online, they are likely to be labelled as:	12 Colleges, who punish it heavily, refer to it as academic dishonesty:	13 You post an MP3 copy of a song on your YouTube channel for others to download. The song is copyrighted and you don't own it. Is this legal?	14 Computer forensic scientists usually have a background in what academic fields?
15 Websites track your visits through pieces of data called:	16 What is it called when sensitive information is taken from a system without the system administrator's consent or knowledge?	17 Name one instance when a keylogger is not considered spyware:	18 Name two types of malware:	19 Name one digital medium a scammer may use to commit social engineering schemes:	20 In general, websites that collect personal data from visitors are required to have this on the site:	21 The 2003 federal law that sets standards for spam regulation is called:
22 Name one action a user takes that can result in a computer becoming infected with a virus:	23 What symbol often represents an attachment?	24 Name one device or place you can use to backup a computer?	25 What are the two media formats that fit into a computer's disk drive?	26 You save a file on your hard drive. The letters after the file name refer to:	27 Name one reason you might need more RAM on your computer?	28 The piece of equipment that brings all parts of the computer together is called:
29 The two main categories of software are:	30 Name one setting in which you may have to sign an AUP:	31 Name one reason you might not be able to get DSL internet in your home?				