

LIFESMARTS APRIL 2021

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT
				1 EFT, also referred to as electronic banking, stands for?	2 A legal document that tells how a person wants their assets dispersed upon their death, is called a:	3 A box that appears on a display screen to request input is called:
4 Ultraviolet rays from the sun are thought to play an important role in causing what type of cancer?	5 Name two of the three most common blood types found in Americans?	6 The total dollar cost of credit, including interest and service charges, is called the:	7 What is the basic health insurance program sponsored by the federal government for people 65 and older, and for many people with disabilities?	8 The ability to execute more than one task at a time on a computer is known as:	9 Name the type of generating plant which uses falling water to produce electricity:	10 Which federal agency requires that Safe Handling Instructions be placed on every package of raw meat?
11 Name one reason you'd have to get a new social security card.	12 Most utility companies are regulated at what level of government?	13 What does the movie rating NC-17 mean?	14 Give one characteristic of the radioactive gas radon:	15 When a ligament is suddenly stretched or torn, the result is a:	16 What type of card requires you to pay your bill in full each month, but charges no interest?	17 What federal agency regulates long distance telephone service?
18 You run a program to defragment your computer. What will this do?	19 About 30 miles above the earth is a stratospheric layer of gas that screens us from the sun's ultraviolet radiation. This is the:	20 A statement on a website describing what information about you is collected by the site, and how it is used, is called a:	21 The person who purchases and is covered by insurance is called the:	22 A person who writes computer program is known as a:	23 The computer terms "cyberslacking" or "cyberloafing" refer to what activity?	24 A substance designed to control or kill plants, weeds, or grasses is a:
25 Explain why it is important to wear sunscreen on cloudy days:	26 The cost of a new car, including standard equipment and factory warranty, is called the:	27 Which federal agency protects deposits in commercial banks?	28 Illnesses that are spread by swallowing, breathing, or coming in contact with contaminated water from hot tubs, swimming pools, lakes, oceans, or rivers are referred to as RWIs. RWI stands for:	29 What common chemical is applied to water, sewage or industrial wastes to disinfect it?	30 When you divide your body weight by the square of your height, what are you calculating?	