

LIFESMARTS MARCH 2021

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT
	1 This pre-workout practice lengthens muscles and improves flexibility?	2 What type of credit card requires you to have a savings account usually in the amount of the credit line to ensure that funds are available?	3 The communication of product information to the consumer to increase buying demand is called:	4 An electric plug has two prongs. If 1 blade is wider than the other, the plug is	5 When buying a car you research MPG. What does MPG stand for?	6 What is the most frequently diagnosed cancer in women?
7 This business compiles information for your credit file and makes it available to lenders, insurance companies, and potential employers:	8 A friend was charged with DWI. DWI stands for:	9 Room air conditioners must carry an EER number. What does EER stand for?	10 For most US households, the most water is used in what room each year?	11 Most vaccines contain weakened or dead disease germs. When injected into the body, what does the body make to fight these real disease germs?	12 When you do not make scheduled payments on your loan, you are in ____.	13 In a free market economy, people may want to buy more of something. This is called the economic Law of:
14 Companies and organizations often call you to offer you products and services. This type of selling is called:	15 The measurement of the intensity of acidity and basicity of water on a scale of 0-14 is called:	16 Name one vaccine a child is recommended to have by the age of two:	17 A person who has guaranteed in writing to pay someone else's debt if that person fails to do so is called	18 If a company earns more than it costs to make products or provide services, the company makes a:	19 A broadcast station that airs a network's programs and commercials, but is not owned by that network, is an:	20 Water that has a high content of mineral salts such as magnesium, iron or calcium, is called:
21 When taking a prescription antibiotic, what should you always do even if you feel better after taking just a few doses of the medicine?	22 Chapter 7 personal bankruptcy may be reported in your credit report for how many years?	23 A corporation whose stock is traded openly in stock markets, is called a:	24 Internet browsers may comply with the security standard known as SSL. What does SSL stand for?	25 Redesigning packaging to reduce the amount of waste generated if thrown away, is called:	26 Antibiotics kill bacteria, but are not effective against colds or the flu which are caused by:	27 A systematic plan for managing your money during a given time period is called a?
28 A program to refund a portion of a purchase price, usually using a form and sending in the receipt or proof of purchase, is called a:	29 Any single computer connected to a network is called what?	30 Which pesticide caused a decrease in bald eagle populations following World War II?	31 What is the addictive drug in tobacco?			