

LIFESMARTS NOVEMBER 2020

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT
1 What is the main purpose of the federal Fair Housing Act?	2 Behavioral economics draws on economics and _____ to explore why people sometimes make irrational decisions.	3 Describe how comparison-shopping helps you save money?	4 Each time you get paid you put $100 into a savings account to use for college. How are you engaging in delayed gratification?	5 Describe an impulse purchase:	6 Name a consequence of impulse purchases?	7 Contrast standard of living with quality of life -- which is more quantifiable?
8 Describe an economic want:	9 Big mergers or acquisitions are reviewed by which two federal agencies?	10 A national program of the BBB is CARU. What does this investigative unit do?	11 Describe constructive complaining:	12 When buying from an online auction site this service protects consumers by holding their money until goods are received:	13 You believe your car is a lemon. To resolve your problem, first contact:	14 People injured by a defective product may seek damages from the manufacturer. The manufacturer's responsibility is called:
15 Divorce, bankruptcy, or bad debt. Which of these cases can you take to small claims court?	16 Are apprenticeships paid or unpaid?	17 Which of these does not belong in the same career cluster -- Hospitality, Food and Natural Resources, or Agriculture?	18 The designation "CFP" after a person's name signifies that they have achieved what professional credential?	19 True or false: According to US labor laws, an unpaid intern cannot be used to replace paid staff	20 Name one reason to seek a mentor in your new career?	21 What does seniority usually grant a person in the workplace?
22 Time management is the ability to control and plan your time in order to accomplish your _____:	23 This Latin phrase means, "Let the buyer beware."	24 Laws that prohibit companies from restricting competition are known generally as:	25 Taxes on imports are called:	26 Three reports are issued for each quarterly GDP. Place these reports in order. They are: preliminary, advance, final	27 Every business cycle has four parts. List all four:	28 The base price for a new car does not include a warranty. True or False?
29 All other factors being equal, what effect would a federal income tax cut have on the economy?	30 Retail stores sell goods directly to:					