The best resources and tips for LifeSmarts success

March 30, 2021

We hope you are having a great week! Remember that LifeSmarts has plenty of fun activities and quick quizzes for bell ringers, lesson plan enhancements, and year-round virtual learning.

This week's reminders

JV competition still available in many states

Junior Varsity (grades 6-8) competitions are still available in many states. If you have students in these grades, now is a great time to get them started in LifeSmarts! Click here to get started. More information is also available on the Coaches page. If you have questions, please email us and spring into action with your Junior Varsity students!

Share your LifeSmarts story

Coaches and students, we invite you to share your favorite LifeSmarts story. We are curious what moments have stayed with you, what you have gained through LifeSmarts, and what you will remember most from your time in LifeSmarts. We will use your words to help promote LifeSmarts and tell our story as we gear up for our 28th LifeSmarts competition season!

Send us your photos!

We still need photos of LifeSmarts teams for use in LifeSmarts and NCL publications. We are looking for action shots of teams wearing school, club, or LifeSmarts attire while completing activities such as TeamSmarts, team practices, competitions, online quizzes, etc. We are looking for high-resolution photos with natural lighting. Email some photos of your team today.

Don't forget about the coach end-of-year survey

Coaches, we need your input! Please take five minutes to complete the end-of-year coach survey. All coaches who submit their name, email, and a quote about LifeSmarts in the survey will be entered to win $25 Amazon gift cards! The deadline to take the survey is April 30.

Until next week,

—The LifeSmarts Team
