

LIFESMARTS APRIL 2023

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT
						1 This type of electronic funds transfer is sent from one person or entity to another using banks or cash offices:
2 Name one of the four major expenses related to domestic tourism?	3 Employment is presumed to be voluntary and indefinite for both employees and employers under what employment doctrine?	4 Wastewater that comes from sinks and tubs, and does not contain human waste, is called:	5 This mind-body practice increases a sense of calm, it enhances overall health, and may reduce high blood pressure:	6 This non-profit service helps consumers reduce debt, create budgets, improve credit scores, and negotiate with creditors:	7 Rivalry among sellers to increase profits and market share defines:	8 What does the Fair Labor Standards Act limit for some teen workers?
9 How has typical housing development in the US impacted vehicle miles?	10 Cognitive symptoms of this process include worry, racing thoughts, forgetfulness, disorganization, and being pessimistic:	11 The amount of money needed to cover basic living expenses is called:	12 Using or taking credit for someone else's work without attribution is:	13 Regarding employment, when state law differs from federal law, which law does the employer follow?	14 This is a measure of the impact our activities have on the environment, especially on climate change:	15 Taking a medicine in a manner other than what is directed is considered:
16 A goal that requires time and planning, and is usually accomplished in 12 months or more, is:	17 Failure of one party to uphold their part of a contract is called:	18 Give one reason the youth labor force increases each summer:	19 This commercially sold product contains nutrients for plants. It may contain nitrogen, phosphorous, and other chemicals:	20 This is how much of the active ingredient is present in each dose of medicine:	21 Interest that is calculated and paid on both the initial principal and the accumulated interest is:	22 Major terms in a contract are called:
23 The government provides financial aid to help pay for college. What is the benefit to the nation?	24 You buy your music online. How does this help the environment?	25 You believe a child has been exposed to poison. What is your next move?	26 The Federal Insurance Contributions Act, passed in 1935, was created to fund what new program?	27 The National Consumers League is a 501(c)(3) organization. What does this designation mean?	28 Why are text messages a more efficient way to communicate with a loved one during an emergency rather than a phone call?	29 How does being out in nature impact stress levels in children?
30

This heart-healthy fat is found in seafood:

