

LIFESMARTS MARCH 2023

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT
			1 How do water, sand, and snow increase your chance of a sun burn?	2 Money is loaded onto this card before use. These cards may be purchased or given to you as a form of payment.	3 Airport screeners from this government agency check passengers and luggage for dangerous items:	4 You receive an email from an unfamiliar source. Why should you be cautious opening attachments?
5 Vinegar and lemon juice are examples. Any chemical with a pH less than 7 is considered:	6 You don't want to get your Vitamin D from the sun. How else can you get the Vitamin D you need?	7 If you need a student loan for post-secondary education, you essentially have two choices. Name one:	8 When manufacturers deliberately design products to fail prematurely, often to sell another product or an upgrade, this is:	9 When shopping for light bulbs watts measure energy; what do lumens measure?	10 This is the term for a national limit that is placed on the amount of a pollutant that may be emitted:	11 This serious, sometimes life threatening respiratory disease affects the quality of life of 24 million Americans:
12 You are examining your budget. What are spending leaks?	13 The FTC enforces this law that protects the privacy and accuracy of the information in your credit report:	14 When a person is targeted to see the same online ad several times, are they more or less likely to make a purchase?	15 Oil, natural gas, and coal represent this type of fuel:	16 This eye care specialist is qualified to perform surgery:	17 Name one of the three major credit bureaus:	18 Often called part numbers, product numbers, or product identifiers, what does the term SKU or "skew" stand for?
19 What federal law establishes minimum pay, overtime pay and child labor standards?	20 Chemicals or other substances that are unwanted or even harmful to the environment are broadly categorized as:	21 Consider the MyPlate food guide. American under-consume three food groups. Name two:	22 Except for bankruptcy, credit reports keep negative information for how many years?	23 The retailer and manufacturer won't resolve a problem you have with a product. What else can you do?	24 This small information file from a web browser is stored on a computer to make webpages load faster or save personal information:	25 Name one human activity that releases mercury into the environment:
26 Why do professional kitchens often use scales rather than measuring cups and spoons?	27 Who owns credit unions?	28 This person currently holds a particular job or political office:	29 A social media influencer promotes a company's products and earns money if others make purchases. This is called:	30 Species that have declined significantly in total number and may be on the verge of extinction in certain areas are considered:	31 This index relates height to weight, and helps you determine whether you are at a healthy weight, overweight, or underweight:	