

LifeSmarts U Technology and Workforce Preparation Lesson

Be Smart About What You Share: A Toolbox Lesson

Toolbox 4: FishBowl Questions, JV

Smart Phones do not need security software, but your computer and tablet do. True or False?	Identity theft is a crime aimed at adults, not kids. True or False?
It is more difficult to identify a fake web page on a mobile device than it is on a computer. True or False?	The three most common passwords used in 2021 were "123456," "123456789," and "12345." True or False?
Most teenagers know what private information to protect when using the internet. True or False?	If you don't open an attachment there is no risk of infecting your phone with a virus. True or False?
Experts say it is "safe" to click through a link in a trusted friend's text. True or False?	The most common reason to steal another person's identity is financial gain. True or False?
All private information is secret. True or False?	Privacy settings can help you set limits on who can see what you post. True or False?
What is cybersecurity?	What is the term for controlling the personal information and actions you share online?
The way a person is perceived based on their online content and interactions is called their:	Explain the term "digital footprint."
Removing someone from your friend's list; this person will no longer see your social media posts and you will not see theirs unless shared by a mutual friend.	Do this on social media and a person will not be able to find you in a search or start a conversation online.

Getting updates from a celebrity's social media "feed," but the celebrity doesn't see your "feed."	Building your community on social media by adding people you know and trust.
A strong password should have one of these characteristics.	A website/app that helps users save and organize their passwords.
A form of online communication that is used by large groups of people to share information and stay connected.	Your personal trail of online activity, including posts, likes, and information gathered about you through the websites you visit and the apps you use.
A secret word or phrase that must be used to gain entrance.	Controls available on many social networking and other websites that allow users to limit who can access their profile and what information visitors can see.
To increase safety and security, install this on your cell phone.	Name one item that is in your digital footprint.
What are Instagram, TikTok, SnapChat and WhatsApp?	Stealing and then using another person's name and Social Security number for financial gain is called:

