TeachSmarts

This weeks' TeachSmarts tip is to pre-order our NEW LifeSmarts Quest Game!

Embark on a quest to win with the new LifeSmarts Quest board game! The new, fun, and educational game, LifeSmarts Quest, will jump-start your LifeSmarts experience by providing a fun atmosphere complete with gameboard, game pieces, and hundreds of LifeSmarts questions to complement the curriculum and enhance classroom instruction. LifeSmarts Quest provides teens with the skills and knowledge they need to evaluate risks and opportunities and make informed decisions in the marketplace in five core topics: Health & Safety, Personal Finance, Consumer Rights & Responsibilities, Technology & Workforce Development, and Environment. LifeSmarts Quest provides a useful, engaging tool that educators can use to implement LifeSmarts with their teams and classrooms.

The game includes critical thinking questions, LifeSmarts competition questions, and team and individual questions.

Don't miss out! To reserve your free copy of LifeSmarts Quest, first be sure you are registered as a coach at LifeSmarts.org. Then, fill out the form here.
