

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
	1 Students learn that some nutrients protect cells from damage caused by pollution and sunlight. What type of compounds do this?	2 A stock market characterized by generally rising prices over time is commonly called what?	3 A rental listing highlights perks like free parking, a pool, and an on-site gym. What are these features called?	4 While texting quickly, Sofia notices her phone automatically fixes misspelled words as she types. What feature is making those changes?	5 During geography class, students compare long-term temperature and precipitation patterns across regions. What are they studying?	6 If you want to choose a breakfast cereal that helps keep you full longer and supports stable blood sugar levels, what nutrient should you look for on the label?
7 Leo signs up for a streaming service that's free at first but becomes paid unless he cancels. What marketing tactic is this?	8 A store refuses to issue a refund, so the customer contacts her credit card provider to reverse the charge. What is this process known as?	9 A mobile game keeps offering quick challenges followed by instant rewards, pulling players into repeating the cycle again and again. What design pattern is this?	10 A state highlights how expanding wind and solar projects have created new jobs and boosted local investment. What advantage are they pointing to?	11 To reset during a stressful day, Mei pauses to focus on her breathing and notice her thoughts without judging them. What mental health practice is she using?	12 Before starting a landscaping business, Andre totals the money needed for equipment, marketing, and permits. What type of cost is he calculating?	13 Two large companies secretly agree to charge the same high price for a product, eliminating real competition. What is this practice called?
14 What do you call a setting a computer uses automatically unless the user changes it?	15 A health report analyzes how long people born this decade are likely to live on average. What statistic is being examined?	16 What type of chemical agent is used to reduce the number of microorganisms on kitchen surfaces to safe levels?	17 After paying for necessities, Tiana calculates how much of her paycheck is left for nonessential spending. What amount is she calculating?	18 What federal law lets eligible employees take up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave for a new child or a family member with a serious health condition?	19 To secure an important account, Eliza creates a long, memorable string of words instead of a short password. What type of login credential is she using?	20 During a trip, Ethan's family visits protected natural areas in the United States that are managed by a federal agency. What is this agency called?
21 After stepping off a curb the wrong way, Jordan's ankle swells and hurts, but no bones are broken. What type of injury is this?	22 When reviewing credit options, Matteo chooses borrowing that lets him carry a balance from month to month and make flexible payments. What type of credit is this?	23 When two neighboring stores try to attract the same customers, shoppers often see lower prices and better deals. What economic concept explains this effect?	24 Tomas starts writing an email but closes it before sending, so the incomplete version automatically saves before being sent. What type of message is this?	25 A community group organizes regular cleanups and tree-planting projects to take care of local parks and waterways. What practice are they demonstrating?	26 Which part of the Nutrition Facts label shows how much a nutrient in one serving contributes to your daily intake?	27 When Zane takes out a federal student loan, he signs a document agreeing to repay the loan according to the lender's terms. What is this document called?
28 What is the title of the top official in the U.S. House of Representatives?	29 Jay wants to stay competitive at work, so he takes courses to learn new tools and improve his existing skills. What is this process called?	30 Students trace how rainwater from their neighborhood flows into streams and eventually into a major river system. What type of area are they mapping?	31 Before spending the day at the beach, Kiana checks her sunscreen to see how well it protects against sunburn. What rating is she looking for?			