

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
30 Before going for a long run, Morgan checks a number that shows how healthy the air is that day. What rating is she using?	31 When bacteria from raw meat spread to other foods, utensils, or surfaces, what is this called?					1 With a painful ear infection but no life-threatening symptoms, a parent chooses a clinic meant for quick treatment instead of a hospital emergency room. Where do they go?
2 After buying work supplies with his own money, Rudy submits a form asking his boss to repay him for the cost. What process is he requesting?	3 Which federal law protects students' education records and gives parents and eligible students the right to access them?	4 Your internet feels slow because several devices are quietly using data in the background. What are these devices commonly called?	5 A pest control company finds that a pesticide no longer works on insects it used to eliminate easily. What has this insect population developed?	6 When comparing yogurt options, James chooses one with live cultures that support gut health. What are these beneficial microorganisms called?	7 When Omar submits forms for college aid, he completes the federal application students use to request grants, loans, and work-study. What form is this?	8 A product that appears on shelves only for a limited time period, such as holiday décor, is considered what type of item?
9 After visiting a shopping site, Hugo notices the page remembers items in his cart the next time he returns. What small piece of stored data enables this?	10 Some vehicles run on a fuel made from fermented plant materials such as corn. What type of fuel is this?	11 A parent limits phone and tablet use before bedtime to help improve sleep quality. What habit is being managed?	12 When evaluating a job offer, Griffin considers vacation days, health coverage, and gym discounts included with the position. What are these extras called?	13 When Congress passes a bill into law after the president vetoes it, what action is Congress taking?	14 Before sending an email to her teacher, Ava clicks a paperclip icon to include her completed worksheet. What is she adding to the message?	15 In science class, students study water, minerals, soil, and forests as materials people depend on for survival and daily life. What category do these materials belong to?
16 After spending winter indoors, Isaac may be low on the nutrient linked to sunlight and bone health. What nutrient is this?	17 When reviewing his insurance statements, Jamal sees a recurring charge from his insurer for keeping his car policy active. What is this charge called?	18 A bill in Congress is supported by members of both major political parties, not just one. How would this type of support be described?	19 A student builds a consistent identity across her social media profiles by choosing what traits, photos, and interests she highlights. What is she sharing?	20 Residents feel the ground shake as energy is suddenly released beneath Earth's surface along a fault. What event is occurring?	21 While training for a race, Yara focuses on activities that raise her heart rate for an extended period rather than short bursts of effort. What type of exercise is this?	22 When filing his taxes, Carlos looks for a dollar-for-dollar reduction of the amount he owes based on his eligibility. What type of tax reduction is this?
23 A store advertises a product at a very low price to attract customers, then tries to convince them to buy a more expensive item instead. What is this deceptive practice called?	24 When Javier takes a photo on his phone, it automatically appears on his tablet without him transferring it manually. What process is happening between his devices?	25 Drivers encounter a massive wall of dust sweeping across the highway as strong winds push desert soil into the air. What event is this?	26 After a lab test confirms a bacterial infection, a doctor prescribes medicine specifically meant to stop the bacteria from growing. What type of medicine is this?	27 When checking a credit report, a consumer may see information collected by companies like Equifax, TransUnion, and Experian. What type of entities are these?	28 Elise files a complaint with a business and a neutral third person helps both sides talk through the issue without making a binding decision. What process is this?	29 A person keeps betting to try to win back money they have already lost. What risky behavior is this called?